Family Golf Days Set For Pinecrest and Oak Marr Golf Courses

Spend time with family and enjoy a game of golf at two of Fairfax County's golf courses. In August parents pay for their 9-hole round of golf and accompanying kids and teens (ages 8-17) will receive their round for no charge. Optional pull cart is also buy one get one free! Mention Family Golfing Days to receive this offer. Offer valid Monday-Friday all day; and weekends after 1 p.m., limited to one child per paying adult.

"By August kids are restless and ready to switch up their routine. This is a great opportunity to introduce kids to the course and experience the game hands-on! Take time to unwind and bond with family--learn, plan and grow to love the sport," stated Peter Furey, Director of Golf Enterprise.

From just starting out to competitive play – Fairfax County offers a variety of opportunities for parents and youth to learn, practice and play golf, including lessons, clinics, programs, tournaments and leagues.

Pinecrest Golf Course is a par 35, 9-hole executive course, measuring 2,462 yards. The challenging, narrow course is dotted with hills and ponds that create a golfing environment suited for novices and more serious players alike. Golf clubs, riding and pull carts are available for rent. Pinecrest features a practice putting green, 10 driving cages and an indoor practice area.

Oak Marr Golf Course, acclaimed as one of the finest teaching facilities and the largest lighted short game practice area in Northern Virginia, includes a 9-hole par three golf course, with holes from 95-200 yards and 78 station driving range with target greens and covered, heated tees. Practice facilities include sand bunkers, a putting green and chipping area.

Both courses offer a clubhouse, pro shop and concession stands.
