Experience Burke Lake After Dark and By Campfire Light

Want to know what goes bump in the night – or splash or hoot? Then come to Burke Lake Park on Saturday, May 7, 2016, for a night hike and campfire from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

A naturalist will lead participants age three to adult on an after-hours walk through the park to see what day visitors miss. Look for those nocturnal critters that only come out after dark and learn to identify some of the noises that make up the nighttime soundtrack.

Cozy up to the campfire, roast some marshmallows, grab a graham cracker and chocolate, and remind yourself why this campfire treat is called a s'more! Ingredients are provided.

The Night Hike Campfire is $8 per person. Children must be accompanied by a paid, registered adult.

Burke Lake Park is located at 7315 Ox Road, Fairfax Station, VA. For more information, call 703-323-6600 or visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/burkelakepark/.
