Enjoy American Music That's Just Plain Fun

The Fairfax County Park Authority is offering two great celebrations of American music the third week in June. This is great entertainment for your family, located in parks near your home at no cost.

On Friday, June 17, 2016 Little Red & The Renegades are presenting a free concert at Mason District Park Amphitheater 6621 Columbia Pike, Annandale, VA. Music critic Lee Nichols from Austin, Texas, describes Little Red's sound this way: "Just flat out fun – it's an exuberant celebration of everything wonderful about American music, with a heavy emphasis on Zydeco and Cajun." Come see this fun medley of American music from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

On Saturday, June 18, Jeffrey Foucault will perform. The American songwriter and record producer, whose work marries the influence of American country, blues, rock 'n' roll, and folk music, will be performing at the Workhouse Arts Center at Lorton 9601 Ox Road, Lorton, VA. The performance will run from 7 until 8 p.m. Foucault has toured extensively in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom and Europe since 2001, in both full-band and solo appearances.

To check for last-minute cancellations due to inclement weather, call 703-324-SHOW (7469) one hour prior to the program start time.

For more details about the Fairfax County Park Authority Summer Entertainment Series, visit online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances. The Summer Entertainment Series is presented by the Park Authority in partnership with the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors and through the efforts of the Fairfax County Park Foundation and generous contribution from local businesses and corporations.
