Have Delicious Fun at Historic Sully with Ice Cream, Dairy Delights

On Saturday, July 9, 2016 from noon to 3 p.m., experience life as in the good old days! Bring your family and friends and a picnic lunch to Sully and enjoy a day of games, churning and eating butter with crackers and ice cream!

Help hand crank ice cream and enjoy flavors such as vanilla, peach, strawberry and even asparagus! Listen to music, play period games and make a memento reminiscent of your day during this extra special old-fashioned afternoon of fun for the family! Join Victorian dressed interpreters as they mingle with visitors throughout the day.

As an added treat, take a ride on the trackless train for an exciting way to see our beautiful park – available at $2 a ride.

This is a day for everyone in the family, from 1 to 100! The cost is $8 per person (not including train rides). For more information call the site at 703-437-1794. Register online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/sully.

Sully is the 1794 home of northern Virginia’s first congressman, Richard Bland Lee, and is located at 3650 Historic Sully Way, Chantilly, VA 20151, off Rt. 28 (Sully Road) ¼ mile north of Rt. 50 and 5 miles south of the Dulles Toll Road.
