Summer Performance Series Hits Its Stride

The Summer Performance Series has hit its stride with great performances throughout the Fairfax County Park Authority system. You can rock out with these great shows and the best part is the shows are absolutely free.

Planet Full of Blues is a three-piece blues/rock band from Hampton Roads, Va. The band performs a mix of originals from its two albums and covers by blues masters Eric Clapton, B.B. King, Tommy Castro, Freddie King, Stevie Ray Vaughan and others. Hear them play on Thursday, July 14 at Frying Pan Farm Park located at 2709 West Ox Road, Herndon, Va. from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m.

FIVES was formed in Baltimore, MD, by lead vocalist Marc Cashin and keyboardist Matthew White. The band's sound is a combination of acoustic roots based rock and indie pop. You do not want to miss out on seeing the FIVES on Friday, July 15 at Grist Mill Park located at 4710 Mt. Vernon Memorial Hwy, Alexandria, Va. from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m.

Washington, D.C. singer/songwriter Billy Coulter's distinctive style straddles the line between roots rock and power pop. Blending diverse influences from Dylan to Bowie, he's created a fresh, authentic sound with a nod to the classics that inspired him. Come and see Coulter on Friday, July 15 at Lake Accotink Park located at 7500 Accotink Park Road, Springfield, Va. The performance runs from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m.

Big Daddy Love is a five-piece band with a unique and natural blend of rock, roots and grass that they call "Appalachian Rock." Big Daddy Love's high-energy performances, fueled by his combination of fiery vocals, striking instrumental dynamics that range from bombastic assaults to soothing grooves, have garnered them a strong, passionate following throughout their home region. Enjoy this performance on Saturday, July 16 at the Workhouse Arts Center at Lorton located at 9601 Ox Road, Lorton, Va. from 7 until 8 p.m.

To check for last-minute cancellations due to inclement weather, call 703-324-SHOW (7469) one hour prior to the program start time.
