A Diverse Collection of Shows for You to Enjoy

The Fairfax County Park Authority is hosting its Summer Entertainment Series and right now you can choose from performances that focus on a wide range of musical styles and genres. The shows are free and offer great entertainment.

The United States Army Voices is performing Thursday, August 18, 2016 from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m. at Frying Pan Farm Park located at 2709 West Ox Road in Herndon, Va. Selected for their musical versatility and showmanship, this well-blended group of vocalists combines their talents with an accomplished piano accompanist to present a variety of styles. They add finesse to classical chamber pieces, belt out top-40 hits, and croon music from the great American Songbook as well as the show tunes of Broadway. This is one performance you do not want to miss.

Describing The Ransom Notes' sound in a single word is an impossible task. Schooled in the precision of classical music and steeped in homegrown tradition. The Ransom Notes inspire audiences with soulful vocals that are considered by many to be one of the best features of this talented ensemble. Enjoy this performance on Friday, August 19 from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m. at Grist Mill Park located at 4710 Mt. Vernon Memorial Hwy, Alexandria, Va.

Cabinet is a band with roots firmly planted in the Appalachian tradition. They wear their influences like badges, honoring the canon of roots, bluegrass, country, and folk, weaving these sounds into a patchwork Americana quilt. Cabinet will be at Mason District Park Amphitheater located at 6621 Columbia Pike, Annandale, Va. on Friday, August 19 from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m.

Two-time GRAMMY® Award winners, Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer are a formidable powerhouse of sound, with a repertoire of traditional and contemporary folk, old-time country and swing music. Enjoy this performance at Rutherford Park located at 4710 Guinea Road, Fairfax, Va. on Friday, August 19 from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m.
