History for Small Fries Offered at Historic Sully

Two new programs at Sully Historic Site for November and December.

On Mondays, November 21 and December 12, 2016 from 10 until 11 a.m., bring your toddler for an hour of storytelling, singing, and a craft to discover how things were in the olden days. Through their senses, children can see how different things smelled, looked or worked.

In November, we will focus on Thanksgiving, the mighty turkey and small squirrel, while in December, we will make a small-fry gingerbread house for the holidays!

Children must be accompanied by an adult. Cost per child is $5. For more information call 703-437-1794 or visit us on the web at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/sully

Sully Historic Site is located at 3650 Historic Sully Way, Chantilly, VA.
